Responsibilities

* Two people at minimum, preferably one person from Cardiac and one person from Pulmonary, will reside on the J 5 Mac committee and participate on teleconferences.
* Mandatory bi-monthly committee reports sent to the Past President to be posted to the NCVPRN website.
* Sends email blasts to members when new and important information regarding health policy and reimbursement issues arise.
* When deemed appropriate by the Executive Board, one or two members from this committee will be permitted to attend the Day on the Hill in Washington, DC.

Benefits

* Committee chairperson shall receive Spring and Fall conference registration paid by NCVPRN.
* Mileage, phone, and postage expenses incurred for the committee work may be submitted to the Executive Board. Payment for these expenses need to be preapproved and will be at the discretion of the Executive Board as they deem necessary at the time of the request.
* Expenses for Day On The Hill will include: hotel fees, transportation, and food.
* Increase your knowledge forming new bonds with other like minded individuals to build into your own programs.